It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

EXTRACT

FROM THE PREFACE TO THE CONFESSION OF FAITH
ADOPTED BY THE CHURCHES OF MASSACHUSETTS IN 1680.

WHAT HOURS OF TEMPTATION MAY OVERTAKE THESE CHURCHES, IS NOT FOR US TO SAY. ONLY THE LORD DOTTH MANY TIMES SO ORDER THINGS, THAT WHEN HIS PEOPLE HAVE MADE A GOOD CONFESSION, THEY SHALL BE PUT UPON THE TRIAL ONE WAY OR OTHER, TO SEE WHETHER THEY HAVE (OR WHO AMONG THEM HATH NOT) BEEN SINCERE IN WHAT THEY HAVE DONE. THE LORD GRANT THAT THE LOINS OF OUR MINDS MAY BE SO GIRT ABOUT WITH TRUTH, THAT WE MAY BE ABLE TO WITHSTAND IN THE EVIL DAY, AND HAVING DONE ALL, TO STAND.

HISTORICAL SKETCH.

THE First Congregational Church in Great Barrington, Mass., was organized on Wednesday, the 28th day of December, 1743, with five members besides the pastor. These were Jonah Pixley, James Sexton, John Pixley, Asahel King, and Jonathan Nash.

On the same day, Rev. Samuel Hopkins, afterwards Dr. Samuel Hopkins, of Newport, R. I., was ordained and installed as Pastor.

"Wednesday, December 14, 1743," as Mr. Hopkins records in his diary, "was observed as a day of fasting preparatory to the ordination. Mr. Hubbard, Mr. Sergeant, and Mr. Genneson were present and conducted the services. It had been arranged that Mr. Hubbard should gather the church on that occasion; but there did not a sufficient number offer themselves, so that the business was put by until the ordination."

The following is the record of his ordination to the pastoral office of the Upper Propriety and the Second Church in Sheffield:—

"DECEMBER 28, 1743.

"By letters missive from said church to the second church of Springfield, the Rev. Samuel Hopkins, pastor; to the church of Westfield, the Rev. John Ballentine, pastor; to the first church of Sheffield, the Rev. Jonathan Hubbard, pastor ; to the church of Stockbridge, the Rev. John Sergeant, pastor ; to the second church of Northampton, the Rev. Jonathan Judd, pastor. Said elders met with their delegates and solemnly set apart to the work of the ministry, by ordination, the said Samuel Hopkins as elder and pastor to the said second church of Sheffield, on the day and date above.

Attest :

"JOHN SERGEANT, Scribe."

Rev. Samuel Hopkins, D. D., was born at Waterbury, Conn., in 1721 ; graduated at Yale College in 1741 ; studied theology with President Edwards at Northampton, Mass. ; was ordained and installed over this church, December 28th, 1743 ; dismissed January 18, 1769 ; and died at Newport, R. I., December 20, 1803.

After the dismissal of Dr. Hopkins, the church was without a pastor for eighteen years. The Rev. Isaac Foster was then installed. He was born in Meriden, Conn., in 1755 ; graduated at Yale College in 1776 ; installed May 4, 1787 ; and dismissed May 4, 1790. He died June 2, 1794.

The pastoral office was then vacant for sixteen years. The third pastor, the Rev. Elijah Wheeler, was born at Pomfret, Conn., in 1774 ; studied theology with Dr. West, of Stockbridge ; was ordained and installed September 24, 1806 ; and dismissed February 12, 1823. He died April 20, 1827.

The Rev. Sylvester Burt, the fourth pastor, was born at Southampton in 1780 ; graduated at Williams College in 1804 ; studied theology with Dr. Lathrop, of West Springfield ; was installed February 12, 1823 ; and died here January 10, 1836.

In a little more than one year after Mr. Burt's death, the church invited the Rev. Josiah W. Turner to become their pastor. He was a native of Southfield, Mass.; was a student of Williams College and East Windsor Seminary; was ordained and installed over this church, April 19, 1837; and dismissed September 30, 1850.

The sixth pastor was Rev. Stephen S. N. Greeley, a native of Gilmanton, N. H. He was graduated at Dartmouth College in 1835; was installed February 4, 1852; and dismissed March 3, 1857.

The seventh pastor, Rev. Horace Winslow, was a native of Enfield, Mass.; was educated at Hamilton College and New York Union Seminary; was installed January 5, 1858; and dismissed March 19, 1862.

The eighth pastor was Rev. Royal B. Stratton, who was a native of Potsdam, N. Y. He was ordained to the ministry in 1848; installed as pastor of this church, March 1, 1864; and dismissed December 14, 1866.

The present pastor, Rev. EVARTS SCUDDER, a native of Boston, was graduated at Williams College; studied theology at Andover Seminary; was ordained at Kent, Conn., in 1859, and installed into the pastoral office of this church, June 12, 1867.

The first house of worship was built by the parish, or proprietors of the lands. It stood just within the western border of the burial ground in the north part of the village, and eight or nine rods north of what is known as the Woodworth house, and was completed in 1742. It was a plain, wooden building, of moderate dimensions, without steeple, tower, or bell, and was occupied by the congregation for sixty-nine years. The second house was erected on the ground where the present one stands, and was completed in 1812. It was larger than the first, and had both steeple and bell. This was removed; and the present house, the cost of which, including organ, bell, and clock, was $22,000, was dedicated June 14, 1860.

ECCLESIASTICAL PRINCIPLES

AND

STANDING RULES.

"BE not ye called Rabbi; for one is your Master, Christ; and all ye are brethren."

"And are built upon the foundation of the Apostles and Prophets, Jesus Christ himself being the chief corner-stone; in whom all the building fitly framed together groweth unto an holy temple in the Lord; in whom ye also are builded together for an habitation of God in the Spirit."

"The controversies about Forms of Ecclesiastical Discipline concern not the Essentials of Religion, but that Good Men may be of various Sentiments about them is readily acknowledged. Nevertheless there ought to be a singular Regard unto Truths of this Nature by us in New England, above what may be affirmed of Men in any other Part of the World, since our Fathers were persecuted out of their Native Land and fain to fly into the Wilderness, for their testimony thereunto: great were the Difficulties and Temptations, and Straits, which they for some time conflicted with, and all upon no other Account but that so they might enjoy a pure Discipline and Church state, exactly conformable to the mind of Christ, revealed in the Holy Scriptures." — Increase Mather.

ECCLESIASTICAL PRINCIPLES.

A CHRISTIAN church is a congregation of professed friends of Jesus Christ, organized by covenant into a society distinct and complete in itself, with the design of meeting personally together for Christian observances and of uniting in Christian work.

This church is therefore an independent ecclesiastical body, and in matters of doctrine, order, and work, is amenable to no other organization. At the same time it recognizes the duty of Christian churches to "have fellowship one with another," to be "fellow-helpers to the truth," and to be "fellow-workers unto the kingdom of God." It therefore will welcome from other Christian churches and will extend to them that coöperation and counsel that are required by Christian love and fellowship.

Every member has equal rights and privileges with every other. All are received into the church upon the same conditions; all enter into the same covenant; and all are alike dependent upon the sovereign grace of God. In choosing officers; in admitting, disciplining, and dismissing members, and in transacting all appropriate business of a Christian church, all stand upon an equality.

It is called a Congregational church, because it is independent of all outward jurisdiction or control, is answerable directly only to Christ its Supreme Head, and because its power and authority reside, under Christ, in its congregation of believers.

The ordinary and permanent officers of the church are Pastors and Deacons ; who are to be regularly chosen and called by the particular church in which they are to minister, and, after thorough examination in respect to their fitness for the work to which they are called, to be ordained according to the mode approved in Congregational churches.

It belongs to the office of Pastor to take the oversight of the church in respect to spiritual things ; to preach the Word ; to administer the seals of the Covenant ; to call the church together upon necessary occasions ; to preside in all church meetings ; and, finally, to labor in all appointed ways "for the perfecting of the saints and the edifying of the body of Christ, until they come in the unity of the faith, and the knowledge of the Son of God, unto a perfect man, unto the measure of the stature of the fullness of Christ."

It is the duty of the Deacons to preside at the meetings of the church in the absence of the Pastor ; to prepare for and assist in the celebration of the Lord's Supper ; to attend to the necessities of the poor of the church ; to receive and distribute the contributions for their relief ; and, generally, to aid in the ministry of the church as occasion may require.

Every member of a church is under obligation to be loyal to the church with which he is connected, and to prove his devotion by liberally supporting the church in its work, with money and effort ; by diligent attendance upon its services ; by advancing its interests and influence in the community by all proper means ; and by so increasing his own piety as to enlarge its efficiency and gain for it the approval of the Great Head of the Church.

It is the duty of the church to maintain that discipline which Christ has appointed, for the removal of offenses ; for the vindication of the honor of religion ; for the purification and edification of the church ; for the restoration of offending members ; and for the purpose of averting the displeasure of God, which may justly be manifested towards a church that suffers the ordinances of religion to be profaned by impenitent offenders.

STANDING RULES.

I. THE Annual Meeting of the church shall be held in the last week of December.

At this meeting reports shall be presented by the Clerk and Treasurer of the church, and by the Superintendent of the Sunday School.

The following officers shall be chosen by ballot:—

First. A Clerk, who shall keep the records of the church.

Second. A Treasurer, who shall take charge of all moneys belonging to the church subject to the direction of the deacons.

Third. A Standing Committee, consisting of the Pastor, deacons, and three other members of the church, who shall serve for three years, the term of office of one member expiring each year. It shall be their duty to examine applicants for admission to the church; to act as a Committee of Inquiry in all cases of church discipline, and to assist, generally, in the prudential affairs of the church.

Vacancies in any of the above-named offices occurring during the year, may be filled at any regular business meeting of the church.

II. Special Meetings for business may be held at the close of each preparatory lecture, and at any other times, of which previous notice shall have been given from the pulpit on the Lord's day.

III. The Sacrament of the Lord's Supper shall be administered on the first Lord's day of January, March, May, July, September, and November. The Sacrament of Infant Baptism shall be administered upon Communion Sabbaths.

IV. Candidates for admission to this church who, upon examination by the Standing Committee in the presence of the church, give creditable evidence of piety, and who assent to our articles of faith, shall be propounded to the church two weeks previous to admission; and after a vote of the church, accepting them, shall be received into membership upon their public assent to the creed and covenant of the church.

V. Members of other Evangelical churches wishing to unite with this church by letter, who are approved by the Standing Committee, shall be propounded to the church one week, and then be received by vote.

VI. Members of other churches who may wish to commune with this church for more than one year, are expected to apply for admission, or to render satisfactory reasons to the Standing Committee for their delay.

VII. Letters of dismissal and recommendation to the fellowship of other Evangelical churches will be given by vote to members in good and regular standing, upon their application with suitable reasons; and these letters shall be valid for one year from the date thereof.

VIII. Members of this church removing from town are required to apply within one year for dismission and recommendation to some evangelical church, or to give satisfactory reasons for their not doing so.

IX. The Sunday School shall be under the supervision of the church, and its officers shall be chosen annually on the first Lord's day of January, by the church, in connection with the Sunday School.

X. Discipline. In every case of offense not falling under the rule laid down in the 18th chapter of Matthew, if known only to a few, it shall be the duty of those to whom it is known, to endeavor faithfully and reasonably to recover the erring member to duty, without a public exposure. But if the offense be notorious, the church, in its collective capacity, shall take cognizance of it, and it shall be the duty of the Standing Committee, on the failure of proper private application, to present such cases to the church without needless delay. It shall also be the duty of each and every member of the church who shall come to a knowledge of any such case of offense, to name it forthwith to the Committee, or himself to proceed in regard to it as the laws of Christian discipline require.

No person shall be admitted to conduct the investigation on the part of the accused, but a member of this church.

XI. The necessary expenses of the pastor, when called to attend ecclesiastical bodies, shall be defrayed by the church.

XII. No alteration of the foregoing rules shall be made unless at the annual meeting of the church, or at a meeting, special notice of which has been given from the pulpit, upon the Sabbath.

DOCTRINAL BELIEF.

"Search the Scriptures; for in them ye think ye have eternal life; and they are they which testify of me."

"That ye may with one mind and one mouth glorify God, even the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ."

ARTICLES OF DOCTRINAL BELIEF.

[The following Articles of Doctrine are the oldest upon any record of this church, and are here given in their original form, because of their historical interest.]

We do believe that there is one God who subsists in three Persons, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Ghost, which three Persons are equally God and but one God.

That God made man perfectly holy and happy ; and entered into covenant with him, promising him everlasting life upon perfect obedience, and threatening him with eternal death, if he should disobey.

That our first parents broke covenant with God, and brought themselves and their posterity into a state of sin and misery.

That God hath not left all men to perish in their sins, but of his mere mercy and grace hath sent his only begotten Son, who, in our nature, bore the curse, and answered the law for us.

That all who believe in Him are justified, and shall be kept by the power of God, through faith, unto salvation.

That at the last day Jesus Christ will come in the glory of the Father with his holy angels, will raise the dead, judge the world in righteousness, condemn the wicked to everlasting punishment, and receive the saints to the everlasting kingdom prepared for them from the foundation of the world.

[The church records then give a fuller series of articles, which bear the date of 1797. These were revised by the Rev. Mr. Burt in 1827; again, by a committee of the church, in 1841; and again in 1858, in which form they remain. They are essentially those which are held by other Orthodox Congregational churches, and which our fathers held. They agree substantially with the doctrinal creed of the Westminster Assembly; with the Cambridge Platform of 1648; with the Boston Confession of 1680; and with the doctrinal statement set forth by the National Council of Congregational churches, held in Boston in 1865.

They show the doctrinal position of this church. The church seeks to educate its members into an intelligent belief in God's Word as thus interpreted. It expects the public ministry of the Word, and the instructions of the Sunday School to accord with these articles of faith. And proof texts are annexed, so that the world may "see and know and consider" the truth as it is in Jesus, and that church members may confirm their own faith.]

ART. 11. We believe the first day of the week should be observed as the Holy Sabbath; that the worship of God — in the closet, family, and sanctuary — is divinely appointed, and that it is a Christian duty to contribute for the support of the Gospel at home, and for the diffusion of its blessings through the earth.

FORM OF ADMISSION AND COVENANT.

"Whosoever therefore shall confess me before men, him will I confess also before my Father which is in heaven. But whosoever shall deny me before men, him will I also deny before my Father which is in heaven."

"With the heart man believeth unto righteousness, and with the mouth confession is made unto salvation."

FORM OF ADMISSION TO THE COMMUNION OF THE CHURCH.

The candidates having presented themselves before the Pulpit, will be met by the Minister, who may address them as follows: —

[This is suggested as a form of orderly procedure, and is not designed to be binding on any minister who prefers to use another form.]

Dearly beloved: You have presented yourselves in this holy place to make confession of the Lord Jesus Christ, and to enter into covenant with His Church. We trust that you have well considered the nature of this engagement, and are prepared by Divine grace to give yourselves away a living sacrifice, holy and acceptable to God, through Jesus Christ.

Listen to our Confession of Faith.

[The minister shall here read the Doctrinal Creed of the Church, after which Baptism will be administered to those who have not before been baptized, the minister saying:]

In the case of some of you, we thankfully recognize in this your public confession of Christ, the fruit of your early consecration to God. Those of you who have not already will now receive the ordinance of Baptism.

COVENANT.

IN the presence of God, His holy angels, and this assembly, you do now solemnly acknowledge the Lord Jehovah, Father, Son, and Holy Ghost, to be your God, the supreme object of your affection, and your portion forever.

You consecrate yourself a living sacrifice to Him, promising to live soberly, righteously, and godly, in this present evil world.

You promise to give diligent attention to His Word; to live in the habitual exercise of secret prayer; to attend the Sabbath services of the sanctuary, and the stated and occasional meetings of the church during the week; to seek to do good to all men as you have opportunity; and to discharge all those duties by which God may be glorified, and the religion of the Bible promoted among men.

You also connect yourself with this church, cheerfully engaging to submit to its rules of government and discipline; to observe its sacraments; to walk with its members in brotherly love; and to strive earnestly for its purity, peace, and prosperity.

Sensible of your own weakness, and trusting in the aid of the Holy Spirit, you now take upon yourself these public and solemn vows.

In consequence of these confessions and engagements, we, the members of this church, do now publicly acknowledge and affectionately receive you, in the name of Christ, to our communion. We welcome you to a share with us in the duties, privileges, and glories of Christ's church, and to the fellowship of that great multitude who have confessed Him on earth, and have washed their robes and made them white in the blood of the Lamb. We also promise, by the grace of Him, without whom we can do nothing, to walk with you in Christian love, and to seek your good as long as you shall continue with us.

And now, beloved in the Lord, let it be impressed on your mind, that wherever you go these vows will be upon you ; they will follow you to the bar of God, and abide upon you to eternity. Hereafter the eyes of the world will be upon you, and, as you live, so Christ and His church will be honored or dishonored.

But let not your heart be troubled. Remember the words of [Here the minister, giving to each new member the right hand of fellowship, repeats some appropriate text of Scripture, and then concludes as follows:]

The Lord bless you and keep you ; The Lord make His face shine upon you and be gracious unto you ; The Lord lift up his countenance upon you and give you peace. And, at His appearing, may you be numbered by Him amongst His chosen as you now are in His visible church. Amen.

CHURCH WORK.

"THE Son of Man is as a man taking a far journey, who left his house, and gave to every man his work."

CHURCH WORK.

THERE is in every parish a great need of Christian work. The church is organized and fitted for such labor. If it be not undertaken by the church, as a church, it will not be done. The Scriptures say: "Ye are the light of the world." "Ye are the salt of the earth." The local church should be to the parish what the leaven is to the meal. Our Lord's wish plainly is "that repentance and remission of sins should be preached in his name among all nations, beginning at Jerusalem." "As we have opportunity let us do good unto all men, especially unto them who are of the household of faith." Believing that the church needs the benefit that comes from wise, earnest, and successful Christian work, and that church members will welcome any definite suggestions, it is hoped that they will carry out the following, or a similar plan.

The work belonging to this church naturally divides itself into the following departments. They offer various kinds of work adapted to the various talents and dispositions of church members. Those who are willing to work for Christ and their fellow men in any of these ways, are requested to give their names to the Pastor or to any one of the Standing Committee.

I. THE SUNDAY SCHOOL WORK.

- (a.) Teachers in the church school.
- (b.) Teachers for district Sunday schools.
- (c.) Reserve corps of teachers to supply occasional absences.
- (d.) Recruiters.
- (e.) Singers.

II. THE PRAYER-MEETING WORK.

(a.) The Thursday evening meeting. Good work for Christ and his church can be done in this by habitual attendance; by leading in prayer; by remarks; and by the service of song.

(b.) The Monthly Concert. This important meeting can be made a great blessing to the church, if different members will give careful verbal accounts of the prospects of Christ's kingdom in the different parts of the world.

(c.) Neighborhood meetings (one of which is established in Seekonk, and in which help is earnestly requested).

(d.) A mother's meeting (which will be established if a sufficient number desire it).

III. THE INDUSTRIAL WORK.

This department is in charge of the ladies of the church, who will welcome an increased attendance and interest.

(a.) The Sewing Society, — usually at work in behalf of some needy Home Missionary.

- (b.) The Young Ladies' Mission Band.
- (c.) The Florence Mission Band.

IV. THE CHARITABLE WORK.

In this department aid is requested.

- (a.) In collecting contributions.
- (b.) In distributing religious literature.
- (c.) In giving invitations to church.

V. THE SOCIAL WORK.

This includes :—

- (a.) Courtesies to strangers on Sundays.
- (b.) Hospitalities to families and individuals joining the congregation. (It should be somebody's particular business to attend to this, for otherwise it will be neglected, and the church suffer.)

(c.) Social gatherings of the congregation. The welfare of every church demands that those worshipping together on the Sabbath should meet statedly for mutual acquaintance.

There should be those who will hold themselves ready to make these reunions attractive.

(d.) Visitation. There should be a system of friendly visitation among the families of the congregation. It would be well for some lady in each district to have it as her charge for the year, to see that all of the families residing within the limits of that district, and not connected with any other congregation, are promptly called upon and made to feel at home with us.

The Pastor will welcome any suggestions as to social work to be done in any district.

VI. MISCELLANEOUS.

There are always various things to be done in every church and parish in which the Pastor desires and needs assistance. It would aid him greatly if he knew whom to call upon for such occasional service.

PASTORAL SUGGESTIONS.

THE Pastor makes the following suggestions both for his own convenience and that of his people : —

1. The Pastor endeavors to visit the different families of the congregation as often as possible. In sickness or any great affliction he should be notified if his services are desired.

2. If he is to officiate at a funeral service let him have as early a notice as possible. It is also desirable for the convenience of the Pastor that funerals should ordinarily be appointed for the afternoon, and, if possible, never on the Lord's day.

3. He will be glad not to be interrupted, except in case of necessity, during the morning hours. Saturday is a day of peculiar engagements with a minister. At all other times he will be happy to receive any who may desire an interview with him ; but he will waive all other engagements at any time rather than not meet those who wish for counsel in matters of personal religion.
